In Re 2011 Redistricting Cases.

CONSOLIDATED CASE NO.:

AFFIDAVIT OF NICOLE A. CORR

STATE OF ALASKA)
) ss.
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT)

I, Nicole A. Corr, being duly sworn upon oath, hereby depose and state as follows:

1. I am an associate with the law firm of Patton Boggs LLP and I make this affidavit in support of the Alaska Redistricting Board’s (“Board”) Second Motion to Continue Trial.

2. Michael D. White, a partner of Patton Boggs LLP, was recently diagnosed with a form of cancer in his mouth and jaw. Due to unforeseen circumstances, Mr. White’s medical treatment has been far more extensive and invasive than previously anticipated. His radiation treatment was postponed until October 30, 2013 so that the doctors could create a mesh mask and digital map of Mr. White’s face to focus the radiation. As a result, he will not complete his radiation treatment until December 12, 2013.

3. The Board has therefore moved this Court for a short extension of the dates set aside for any necessary hearing or trial, until at least January 6, 2013.

4. The Board met at a properly noticed meeting on October 24, 2013 to discuss the unforeseen delay in Mr. White's radiation treatment. The Board discussed that it would be greatly prejudiced if its lead counsel was not permitted to participate at trial given his extensive knowledge of the facts and the unique legal issues involved in this case.

5. I then called Joe McKinnon, attorney for the Alaska Democratic Party, and notified him of Mr. White's situation and the Board's intention to ask for another short extension of the trial dates. Mr. McKinnon informed me he would oppose our second request for an extension despite the unforeseen change in circumstances.

6. I also called Michael Walleri, counsel for the Riley Plaintiffs. I notified him of Mr. White's situation and the Board's intention to ask for another short extension of the trial dates. Mr. Walleri informed me he would oppose our second request for an extension despite the unforeseen change in circumstances.

Further Affiant sayeth naught.

NICOLE A. CORR
