IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA
FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT AT FAIRBANKS

IN RE: 2011 REDISTRICTING CASES: )
 )
 )
_____)
Case No. 4FA-11-2209CI

Order Regarding Late Filing

The Alaska Democratic Party [ADP] filed its motions several days late. Counsel for ADP contends he miscalculated the due date and then was unable to file the motions due to electronic difficulties. Basically ADP requests relief due to excusable neglect, i.e., the ordinary frailties of mankind. The Riley plaintiffs support accepting the late filed motions. The Board does not given the unique nature of the case and the expedited briefing schedule.

The troubles of today are sufficient unto themselves and the troubles of tomorrow will take care of themselves. The court accepts the ADP motions as filed as of 16 September 2013 and any oppositions to those motions are due ten days from that date and replies are due accordingly in five days. The troubles of tomorrow will not be appreciably increased by this modest exception.

DATED at Fairbanks, Alaska, this 17 of September, 2013.
