

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA
FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

IN RE 2011 REDISTRICTING CASES

Case No. 4FA-11-02209 CI

RILEY ET. AL. PLAINTIFFS' OPPOSITION TO ALASKA REDISTRICTING BOARD'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE RESPONSE TO AMICUS BRIEFS OF NORTH STAR BOROUGH

The Riley/Dearborn Plaintiffs oppose the Alaska Redistricting Board's Motion seeking leave to respond to the Fairbanks North Star Borough's Amicus Brief for the reasons set forth in the Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike. In addition, the Plaintiffs object to the Board's misleading claim that "this Court has permitted the Board to respond to pleadings filed by amicus curiae," citing this Court's order following the first remand. [citing Scheduling Order, April 12, 2012)¹ The Orders were very different. In that previous process, the Court used an "objection" process and allowed amicus to file objections on the same schedule as the parties. In the current process, only the Court employed a summary judgment process in which only parties were allowed to file such motions. Given these difference, the Board's confusion is not believable in light of the Board's motion practice concerning the ADP.
